"THE WELCOME TO THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH."

THE MOST WONDERFUL INVENTION OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

NO OTHER INVENTION OF MODERN TIMES IS SO WELL ADAPTED TO THE WANTS OF EVERYBODY AS

The Edison Phonograph.

The Business Man, Educator, Editor, Lawyer,
In fact all professional and nonprofessional people, recognize in this instrument an invaluable assistant and welcome companion. Its usefulness can only be appreciated by a personal inspection.

IT ACTUALLY SPEAKS FOR ITSELF!

IN THE OFFICE, as an amanuensis, it saves time and money.

IN THE STORE, it advertises your business.

IN THE HOME, it furnishes unlimited entertainment and instruction.

IN THE SCHOOL ROOM, it aids the pupil in acquiring correct pronunciation of foreign languages, and is a wonderful assistant in the study of elocution.

IN THE TREATMENT FOR DEAFNESS, it is receiving unqualified endorsements of well-known physicians.
